Before I begin my remarks, there are many people I'd like to extend my sincerest thanks to. To our coaching staff, Coaches Shrimpton, Carroll, Foote, LaForge, Brennagh, Murray and Smith. I'm blessed to work alongside such talented and passionate coaches. The fact that we all share such a strong friendship makes coming to the practice field every day a significant highlight for all of us. Mr. Bedard for his constant support and leadership. Thanks to Mrs. Bedard for her help with details and planning. Heather and her support staff for their incredible daily work in the clinic with our players. We suffered several significant injuries this year, and their daily efforts are always deeply appreciated. Mr. Shields, for his thankless, yet invaluable contributions as our equipment manager. Mr. McHenry, and former Director of Advancement Jim Herder for their weekly support and encouragement. To the entire Andrean community for providing us with remarkable crowd support. And last, but certainly not least, our team manager Kevin Truong and our video specialist Harrison Liu. Kevin and Harrison were both dedicated and reliable in their crucial roles. Without question, they are full-fledged members of our team.

When the season began, I made a concerted effort to remind our players that "tradition never graduates." This slogan was put on the back of our workout shirts as a daily reminder that our players are part of a storied history and a football program that encompasses generations. The message here is to implore our players that they have a collective responsibility to carry the torch that has been passed down to them. If their willingness to work tremendously hard on a daily basis and their overall commitment to the weekly pursuit of excellence is an accurate measuring stick, then our players certainly maintained the tradition of our football program. A 2nd place finish, including a dominant victory over St. Mike's at their homecoming, and a place in the CISAA semi-finals should be considered a successful season, but there is a championship spirit that echoes throughout our football program and we were all extremely disappointed not to have achieved more success on the field.

As a coach, I often reinforce the value of winning, but not because I believe the ends justify the means. I reinforce winning when it comes as the culmination of a week of outstanding practice work and preparation. When it reinforces to a team the importance of committing to a process of excellence and playing the game the right way. To quote Coach Vince Lombardi, "I firmly believe that any man's finest hour, the greatest fulfillment of all he holds dear, is that moment when he lies exhausted on the field of battle – victorious." Thus we found it difficult to take any moral victories away from our defeat to St. Mike's. As I stated immediately after our semi-finals defeat to St. Mike's, while our team deserved a better fate, sometimes in sports, as in life, we must learn to accept adversity and disappointment and move forward. We were defeated. No excuses or qualifiers. We simply got beat and will live with that result.

Yet I do hope as time continues to move forward that our players, particularly our graduates, gain a complete appreciation for their outstanding St. Andrew's football careers and those special bonds they have formed practicing and playing alongside their Andrean brothers. It certainly speaks volumes about the character of our players that their response after that defeat was to feel as though they let the Andrean community down. Our players are young men of tremendous devotion and integrity, and their love of St. Andrew's and our football program is second-to-none.

"Fight on, my men, Sir Andrew said. A little I'm hurt, but not yet slain. I'll just lie down and bleed a while, and then I'll rise and fight again." LG

s I do with all of my speeches, I will start with a quote. This one from legendary linebacker Ray Lewis, "When you believe in what you believe in no matter hat happens or what people believe, the ultimate is the ultimate."

his year the U16 Football team took great strides on the field. We attended the Pineridge Secondary School jamboree where we played 4 games and came ut victorious in three of the games while tying the other. We knew this year would be a successful year when first year defensive back Hunter Applebe made wo interceptions that day… almost. The boys showed that they have the athletic ability to compete.

ur first game matched us up against UCC at our homecoming. While we lost a close game 8 – 0, we showed that we would be a force in the league. We ropped about (and I counted) 182 passes in that game. It was the difference.

e then proceeded to give away our first game to St. Mike's with 3 disastrous turnovers. And, as they say, "turnovers are for bakeries", it again was the ifference.

o end the first half of our season we played Trinity College at home that we had hoped to have, what we considered to be "a beat down". Unfortunately we aced a team that never once threw the ball. This is always an issue when you essentially have three defensive backs whom could have played their position rom the sidelines that day. Having said that, we managed to drive the field with a chance to win the game on the final play. It was at this time our quarterback alled a quick snap for the QB sneak. Unfortunately, our offensive line forgot that the "quick" in "quick snap" was meant for them. That was the difference.

fter half way through the season, we were 0 – 3. But as they say, our record did not show our talent. And that's when the boys put it all together. We pulled off last minute come from behind win against TCS to start the second half of the season. And then we hosted SMC to our field were we played an almost perfect ame. They could not move the ball on our defense and our offence made plays when they needed to. In the end, we managed to beat SMC for the first time ver at the U16 level.

e then had to beat UCC in our final match to make it to the one game playoff/championship. In a valiant effort, we ended our season with a tie versus our pponent. But we managed to have a very successful term in football going undefeated in the second half of the season. It was the most successful run of ootball I've had at this level. It was the entire team's persistence that was the difference.

he season would not have been a success if it were not for the coaches of the U16 football team. Coach Stewart, Prezens, MacPherson, Laforge and Morton re an amazing group of coaches. In fact, now that I am no longer the defensive coordinator, I have very little to do during games now, even as the head oach. In fact, other than saying to Mr. Laforge things like, "Just fix it!" or to Coach Morton "Do you have a plan for that?" my mind tends to wander. Over the ast season, I have asked myself questions during games which I don't really have the answer to:

f a "W" looks the way it does, why isn't it called a "double-V?"

hen people lose weight where does it actually go?

hat is nougat anyway?

f I was driving a hearse, could I drive in the carpool lane?

f we evolved from monkeys why are there still monkeys?

hy is it that every time I plug a USB cable into my laptop, I always put it in upside down the first time?

o in an effort to make myself look more important during games, I have come up with a piece of equipment for next year.

I started writing this year's speech and I thought I'd save some time by using last year's. After all, the content was pretty similar. A team lost some of their best players from the year before and our expectations as coaches were… you know… and yadda yadda yadda.
And then I heard a voice. It was Mr. Biasi: "Day! …You sandbagger."
So I thought about it. As coaches, we often play down our expectations – not because we don't believe in our team, but because boys who are learning to play the game at this level are inherently unpredictable. Things happen. Injuries happen. Bad test results happen. GLC happens. Hurricanes happen. Small things like that can throw an athlete off his game and even disrupt an entire team. We were fortunate to avoid most GLC referrals but we sure had our share of injuries. We still don't know how Patrick Taylor injured himself - he missed more than half the season; Emil Hiiri broke his ankle – again; Adrian Goyo hurt… actually, I can't tell you how many times Adrian Goyo got hurt – it was a lot! And yet through many injuries, the team persevered. Each time one player fell another rose to take his place and never once did the spirit (or the skill level) of the team drop. This tenacity was exemplified by James Michaelis: in the final he broke his wrist yet he played on without ever letting on. The coaches had no idea; the trainers had no idea; the opposition certainly had no idea because he was dominating them!
Not only did they persevere, but there was also a sense of camaraderie evident from day one. There is one lasting image that illustrates the closeness of this team. After Mark Mackey scored the winning goal in the championship final, the unbridled joy and wonder on the players' faces as they celebrate together is memorable to say the least. It could be that they had a hard time believing we'd won in such a manner – who scores the winner with his backside?! (He'll tell you it was his arm). Or it could be that they were suddenly overwhelmed by the enormity of their accomplishment – one that few thought possible at the beginning of the season. St. Mikes would say that we were lucky. I say, you have to be good to be lucky… and we were really really good that day. DM

Once again the JV Soccer squad had a winning season. This team was made up of a mixture of a few real soccer players and student athletes who, while being competitive, played for the enjoyment of the sport. This eclectic group enjoyed each other's company, were dedicated to practices and games, and were simply a fun and gregarious group of young men. The team finished the season as the only JV squad to make the final four in the D2 league, which by any measure, defines a successful season. SK

The U16B Soccer team had a great season overall. It was great, not because of the wins we had, but because of the spirit and determination the team brought to the pitch during every game, even those that we lost. Twenty young soccer players trained diligent each day, learning and developing skills and gaining confidence in their positions on the field. As the season progressed, the soccer machine began to run smoothly, with far less coughs and splutters.
We knew that we would face some significant challenges this year, as the U16B team had been moved into the Division 2 league for the first time this year. We played 7 games in total, which included 2 friendly's, and we came away with 3 wins, so all-in-all we did pretty well. High points for the season included our Homecoming win against Lakefield, and a 7-1 victory against Appleby College. My personal favourite was our final match, which was a friendly against Pickering College. Pickering's U16 team was the undefeated champions of the D3 league this year and I was pleased that our team controlled the game well for a full 90 minutes and came out with a well-deserved win. For me, it proved that our team had made great accomplishments throughout the season and that we were certainly worthy of our D2 placing. Coach Totera and I would like to thank all the players for a really fun and enjoyable soccer season.

Each of our 17-man roster played his role with pride and determination, with nearly all enjoying their best games of the season that final day. Blessed with two fine goal-keepers, our starter, Eugene Lee, expertly controlled the back 18, with his well-timed charges, dives, and booming kicks to launch down-field counter-attacks. Alternate Jack Kensit wasn't content sitting on the bench, working to become a formidable starting midfielder, worthy of MIP consideration. Our defensive back four of Josh Osborne, Zamaan Tejpaar, Ryan Lindsay, and centre Pablo De Arrigunaga Lopez, worked tirelessly in tandem to keep opponent scoring opportunities to a minimum. By season's end, our centre midfielders Robert Krueger, Beto Said Ramos, and Jorge Cobian Bustillo became the fire in our collective bellies, directing every play, and instilling further confidence in their supporting cast of halfbacks: Luca Primucci, Dylan Applebe, Matteo Derbedrosian, and Chris Chung. In the semis, our strikers Hector Grisi Ancona, Andrew Boland, Mauricio Hajj Slim, and Spence Berman skillfully created dozens of scoring opportunities, which a month earlier would have been none existent. While we weren't able to perform a similar miracle in the gold medal match against UCC, it was a most remarkable accomplishment just to earn the right to play.

Myself and co-coach Mr. Clements, would like to thank the boys for their outstanding efforts, respect for self, school, and system, and for their heart-warming comradery. Our short time together on the soccer pitch will never be forgotten! Gang-wa-wah!

The U14B soccer team had a great season. Although we had a slow start, facing a few difficult losses in the beginning, the team put forth great effort and steadily improved game to game. We finished the season in 3rd place, playing our best game of the season during the CISAA semi-finals. The coaches are extremely proud of the heart, sportsmanship, and perseverance demonstrated by the U14B players. Many memorable moments were shared by the team at practice and on the playing field – it was a season to remember. Way to go, gentlemen! DJ

It was definitely a rebuilding year for the U13 A soccer team. We were on the losing end of more games than we won; however, the boys persevered and kept their heads held high. The highlight of our season was attending the CAIS national soccer tournament held in Montreal in late October. There were 18 teams in the tournament and each team was scheduled to play 7 games in three days. With little over an hour in between games the boy's fitness and mental toughness was put to the test! During the semi-finals of league play, the boys stepped up their game and actually challenged UCC's back four creating multiple scoring chances. The game ended with a 4-1 loss; however, the boys were thrilled to be one of only a few teams to score on this team as they won both the national tournament and league title. MD

Things looked a little grim at the beginning of our season w only 7 boys trying out for our team. However, after a little b of extra encouragement, we managed to get our number up to 14. We had a rare combination of boys from grades 5, 6 7, and 8, and although they may have lacked experience, they competed hard as a team and made all of our games interesting.

We started the season with two lop-sided losses to Bayviev Glen and Holy Trinity, after which we had still not scored a goal. At that point, it was clear that we needed a bit of a boost in order to break down the opponents' defence. For our third match, we had that boost, as our final recruit, Etha Ritchie, played his first game for us. He brought with him th speed and endurance that he had built up in hockey and used it to earn a penalty shot and our first goal of the seaso After the celebrations died down, we played another tough game against Villanova College, but then finished our seas with our most successful contest, a rematch against Bayvie Glen in which we managed to score two goals thanks to ou newfound sniper, Colby "Right Place at the Right Time" Jackson. SL & JR

Facing familiar teams, our boys were ready to try their best to play as a team. With over 35 student's tryout for our 18 man roster, we knew our teams potential!

Looking at our stats this year, we had 6 wins, 1 tie and 3 losses. Our team was made up of 5 returning boys and 13 new boys. The challenges of being a new student and participating in competitive teams can have many rewards and challenges. We would like to thank our returning boys for their hard work, dedication and team spirit for welcoming and assisting our new boys into the SAC environment. Clearly, team work was displayed every practice and game.

Although we missed the championship match in the CISAA tournament, our boys had an amazing tournament. The first game ended in a thrilling shootout, as our boys nailed in 4 shots and saved 3 goals against HTS. JC

What an incredible Volleyball season this has been. This year's team made up of an outstanding group of young athletes. They were a pleasure to coach. On behalf of our team, I want to thank the amazing cheerful and supportive crowd we had during the CISAA semi-finals. We won that game thanks to your enthusiasm…no home team was allowed to lose with that kind of crowd behind them, and we did win in dramatic fashion on our fifth set. Mr. Cowell and I are very proud of this team. They are a proof of talent, dedication, teamwork and most importantly they played inspired volleyball as a team. We would like to recognize our graduating players, please stand we I call your name! Captain Austin Valjas, Aaron Sum, Justin MacNamara, Will Thompson and David O'Connor. We will miss you, Chicos! Our MIP is a player who accepted to play a role which was not his favorite, playing a defensive role in volleyball is not the most exciting role, and often is an ungrateful one, but it is a crucial position. And when played brilliantly, it elevates the play and confidence of the team. This is what William did. Our MIP is William Thompson. When we have to choose a MVP and it is a close choice between two or three players, we usually say it was a though choice. It was a difficult choice. We too had 3-4 potential MVP`s in our team. What I will say instead is that it was a pleasure to see a display of home talent and the reason why we had such a successful year. It is thanks to leaders like Austin Valjas, Justin MacNamara, Alex Carter, that we have had such a successful season, probably the best since I have been at SAC. It is my pleasure to introduce our MVP among MVPs, Alex Carter. CN & FC

The U16 Volleyball team started out the season slowly. With only three returning members of last year's team, fundamentals and teamwork was crucial for success. With a lively and energetic group of grade 9's and well-needed shot of athleticism curtsey of the '99 YSE hockey team we were able to prove that heart, dedication, and fight could match years of volleyball experience. The U16 Volleyball team finished the regular season with a record of 4 – 2. This allowed us an automatic berth into the CISAA semi-finals. However, in the semi-finals the Saints were matched against a defensively strong team from UCC and unfortunately fell short of our goal (the CISSA final) by a score of 3 sets to 1. The U16 Volleyball team should be commended on how quickly all players saw improvements to their game. AG & KK

The U14 volleyball team enjoyed keeping their coaches on their toes this season with many long rallies and close matches. The team comprised of primarily rookies, but they were all good athletes who were passionate about representing St. Andrew's College in the volleyball circuit. Heading in to the season, our goals as coaches were to make it to the final Four, so every game was extremely important for their standing. Winning their first home-game was a motivating start, and losing to UCC at Homecoming by only three points in the fifth was very exciting for the team. Not only did they make it to the final Four, but they earned the right to host the quarter finals in which they handily beat Royal St. George's College. The Saints should be proud of their season, and for exceeding all expectations. Congratulations to all members of the team for their third place CISAA finish. RW & WE

The Under 12 volleyball team had an exciting season. We were fortunate to have a number of experienced grade 6 players who were eager to be a leader on and off the court, as well as a few athletes who were new to the sport but very keen to learn the game and develop their skills. We started off the season with a big win against UCC at Homecoming , which served as a great confidence boost for the team. After a long 4 games at the CISAA final tournament, we found ourselves up against UCC once again in a very closely matched consolation final. Ultimately, the boys prevailed and placed 3rd overall in the league.

Although we did have some excellent athletes, our squad was not quite as fast, or as strong, as it had been in the past few years. I would argue, however, that Middle School cross-country has never had a group of boys with a better attitude.

Our team focused on improvement and didn't obsess over perfection.
Our team set attainable goals, reached them, and then set higher ones.
Our team prepared purposely and avoided overtraining.

And most importantly, our team stayed positive, supported one another, and never complained.

The 1st Hockey Saints enoyed another memorable season this year. The opening of the La Brier Family Arena surely made it a historic year. We captured the World Sports Invitational, the St. Sebastians Tournament, CISAA Champions, and NISIC Champions. The Saints finished with a record of 46-6-5 in their toughest year of competition. Some of the highlights from our year was winning the St. Sebastian's tournament infront of their home crowd, the sweep vs. Culver, and spliting a weekend with powerhouse Shattuck St. Mary's. As we have 12 graduating players leaving next season, our returners will have some big shoe's to fill. I know several of these guys will move on and play college and professional hockey. I would like to thank the team for always coming to the rink prepared, working hard on and off ice, and supporting eachother. I can't wait for next season to start already. I would like to wish the graduating players all the best next year as many of them move on to college, and junior hockey. DM

The JV hockey team was a lot of fun to be around this year with guys like Matthew Iezzi and Matthew Leroy there was never a dull moment. While our overall record was nothing to be proud of this team worked hard and we saw significant improvement throughout the year. After starting off in January with 4 straight games where we did not score a goal it would have been easy to throw the towel in but a core group on the team buckled down and made the final few games enjoyable and we even scraped out a few wins and putting up solid efforts against Villanova, UCC and Crescent. In the final two games of the year both coaches from Villanova and UCC took the time to compliment on how much our team had improved and how they were finally playing hockey and not just out there to goon it up. JM

The U16 Hockey team had an amazing year. It was early in the tryouts where we recognized that we were going to ice one the most talented team we have had at the U16 level in the last few years. We had a good mix of skill and grit and believed that we had enough depth to be a contender for the league championship. Without a doubt, the highlight of the year was winning the 29th Annual St. Mike's Double Blue tournament. This was the first time SAC had ever won this tournament. The U16 A team finished our season with an overall record of 17-6-2. Finishing second after league play.I would like to finish by thanking Mr. Reid for his knowledge and time, as well as our incredible therapists who tried to keep our players in one piece. I would also like to thank the grade 10 members for a fantastic two years and the grade 9's for their commitment and dedication. JF

Mr. Galajda? You left your speech here! Oh, well...I guess I will just read his speech! (Looking around). There is no speech here...just a picture of your son, Matthew Galajda. He's the Varsity goaltender...never mind. Characters! Coach Galajda is a character and so am I. So, it won't surprise you when I say that once again this year, we had a team of characters. Players like William Wee Billy Starke, who every time he skated by the bench yelled, "I am going really fast!" And every time Coach Galajda would say, "No, Billy, no you are not." And what about Ethan Ritchie? Delightful child! Sidelined with injury, Ethan ran the clock for us during home games. One memorable occasion was when Ethan hit the buzzer every time either SAC or UCC scored. When UCC scored their either goal, I remember thinking, "Please don't hit the buzzer." (Buzzer sound) Jake Iwai was on the team, too. When Coach Galajda asked him, "Jake, do you have any younger brothers?" Jake's response was classic: "I think so." "A few." Hence, the Iwai legacy lives on! Andy Han's father, known simply as Mr. Han, was our #1 fan. He attended all the practices and games and really enjoyed using his cow bell. Interestingly, his cow bell was called "Andy". We even had some mysterious characters. One day Andrew Kraik showed up and skated onto the ice. An indignant Coach Galajda asked, "Who is that kid?" "That's Andrew Kraik." "Is he on our team?" "I'm not sure, let me ask. Kraik, are you on our team?" Kraik stopped, looked at us and said, "I think so." Galajda said, "Good enough for me. Welcome aboard!" Our veteran players returned as characters, too. Guys like Spence "The Sniper" Berman, Andrew "Silent and Deadly" Boland, Ryan "Did my Mom call you?" Lindsay, Aidan "I'm a Goaltender" Bradley, and Thomas "My Slapshots Hug the Ice" Childerhose, added a great deal to this team.In the end, we had a productive season. We lost more games than we won and we didn't win as many games as we lost. But we had moments of excellent play that illustrated our potential. The highlight of the year was when we narrowly lost to St. Mike's, the eventual league champs, 3-2 in what should be considered one of the best games of the year.

Your youngest hockey team enjoyed a tremendous year this year. The boys enjoyed a very solid season and avenged a couple of losses from the previous year. The boys enjoyed a great beginning of the year with an excellent first tournament at the Labrier Family Arena. In that tournament the boys reached the final versus their rivals from Montreal, Selwyn House. The boys trailed 1-0 for almost the entire game before Hunter Kolm tied it in the dying minutes. 3 on 3 overtime solved nothing and the game headed for the shootout. With our fantastic rookie goalie, Rowan Kimens in the net we liked our chances and sure enough, rookie sensation Daniel Kraik scored the winner and we were victorious. In out annual trip to Montreal's Selwyn House we also enjoyed a great result and skated to a 5-0 tournament victory on the shoulders of Nat Bannister's hat trick. During that trip, Mr. Weedon and I learned that the smack talk starts early in hockey these days. When walking to the Science Centre we heard our guys talking to each other. These fine gentlemen will remain nameless. As you may know, an insult in hockey is that "you've got stone hands", or even worse, the dreaded, "you've got no hands." This means that you can't score. Walking along the street, Mr. Weedon and I heard one of our guys say to his teammate, "hey Jack Bray, can I borrow your stone hands to sharpen my skates?" to which he replied, "no way Caden McHenry, by the way you've got a problem, what are you going to do in the handshake after the game with no hands?" Pretty funny stuff from the boys. Stuff that Mr. Weedon and I bring to our respective men's league teams on Sunday nights. In the end, the grade 6 team from UCC was just too strong and we ended up with a consolation championship. TB

For the first year at SAC we added a 16-B team to the school due to the fact we have so many good hockey players coming through the school.
We finished with a record of 9-5-2, which is really good for our first year. Over the season we shared lots of intresting moments on the bus rides to and from the rinks, especailly with some of the boys on this team.
For our MIP, it went to one of our 3 goalies. By the end of the season we counted on him to be making big saves which he did. Our MIP is John Musgrave. Our MVP was counted on every game, and every game he brought it, our MVP is Nolan Garnett.

Cameron and I knew from the start of the season that our group of swimmers this year was a very determined bunch. They were full of energy the desire to learn the strokes, dives, flip turns, and proper breathing techniques to be successful. Swimming is not the easiest sport to learn, is difficult to master the arm and leg positions while breathing in the water, but our team put in a lot of hard work to ensure they did their best improved their times throughout the season. As a result, we had some very strong times at each of the competitions, and the boys should be proud of how far they came in a short period of time. They all improved dramatically. They ended the season looking like a very different ch of swimmers than they started, and Ms. Cameron and I are very happy to have been able to work with them.

vould like to thank Mrs. McCue and Mr. Trevisan for their support throughout the season. It is great to work with such a dedicated group of hes. We would also like to thank the Upper School swim team members who we would occasionally borrow to show our swimmers what a er stroke looks like in the water. We have some amazing swim talent at the school, and they provided an example for our younger swimmers ok up to and strive to emulate. MT

First Basketball

It's an exciting time of year to be a basketball fan. The NCAA Basketball men's basketball tournament, known as 'March Madness', takes over the lives of many basketball fanatics for four straight weekends, and we are treated to exciting games full of buzzer beater wins and stunning upsets.

A lot of you are probably participating in a March Madness pool, where you pick your bracket and try to predict the winners. This is such a difficult task, over 12 million people filled out brackets through ESPN.com, and three games into the second round of the tournament, not one perfect bracket remained!

A couple highlights of the tournament for St. Andrew's and York Region included SAC alumni Chris Egi suiting up for Harvard and taking on North Carolina in the opening round, and local Newmarket player Kevin Pangos leading Gonzaga all the way to the Elite Eight. This weekend, only the top dogs remain as the Final Four features Kentucky, Wisconsin, Duke, and Michigan State.

Speaking of playing the top dogs, this was the task of the First Basketball team every single day of the CISAA season this year. The CISAA basketball league featured the top two ranked teams in Canada, and sent representatives to OFSAA at every level this year, capturing gold at AAAA and A, silver at AA, and the consolation championship at AAA.

As a result, this year's First Basketball team was like Harvard – a disciplined, well-rounded, intelligent basketball team – and every day they got to battle the likes of Kentucky, Kansas, and Duke. It was a challenge that this year's team embraced, and they should be extremely proud of their efforts. With seven new players, they had to learn how to play as a unit – unselfish and poised during every single possession – to find success.

There were many highlights to the season, including the SAC Invitational Championship, Small School Showcase semi-finalists, and Oshawa Invitational Consolation Championship. The team battled hard to earn a playoff spot in an incredibly strong league, and we are looking forward to the return of a large core of players for next year. A sincere thank you to the entire SAC community for your support throughout the season.

Your JV Saints entered the 2015 season with an assembly of athletic guards, a group of promising young forwards, and a herd of hardened offensive lineman. After graduating our top two leading scorers from last year, there were many questions surrounding this team's offensive potential and viability in a league filled with varsity teams. These doubts were quickly erased when the boys in Red & White won seven consecutive league games and secured a berth in the CISAA Tier 2 Final Four. Although we narrowly lost the anticipated semi-final rematch against Bayview Glen, your JV Saints achieved a 3rd place finish for the second consecutive year. Since joining the Tier 2 league three years ago, we have maintained a league record of 19-8 and our returning veterans will look to making it to that elusive championship game next year. MC

This past season has been an unbelievable learning experience for Mr. Demello and myself. We had an awesome group of guys who all had a great willing to learn attitude. And as coaches we were able to learn a lot about ourselves and our players.
All jokes aside, this past season was an amazing experience and we couldn't have asked for a better group of guys! We had so many options for Most Improved Player but ultimately it came down to one guy. this player came up to me before our first game to inform me that he had never played a game of organized basketball. He proceeded to end up in the top three of scoring on the team. Congratulations to Wells "The Gerber Baby" Karabin.
The MVP award was a very difficult choice as so many players put their hearts and soul into this team. Ultimately it came down to the man who lead us on the score sheet and dictated play from the point guard position. Congratulations Mario "The General" Vazquez. JC

Despite having two football coaches with limited basketball experience, your U16 B basketball team enjoyed an incredibly successful season.

Our 2 and 7 record does not capture the essence of our season. Although the boys battled throughout the year against other schools' "A" teams we often found ourselves with the lead or losing at the end of the game by just a few points. This is especially encouraging when you consider the fact that 11 out of 13 players are in Grade 9, making us easily the youngest team in the league.

Our season contained numerous memorable moments that warrant reliving. Firstly, Larry "The block Party" Liu fouled out of almost every game, Will Wang showed up to every practice and game in skateboard shoes, Ricky Tang scored a mind blowing 31 points in one game… more than he would score in the other 8 combined, Warren Zheung jacked up numerous three pointers because we promised him pizza if he made one, Mark Polemoidiotis had a highlight three pointer and an even better celebration, and finally Ewan Fox hit a half court buzzer beater in our final game game of the year, a victory over De La Salle.

Mr. LaForge and I have the difficult job of making sure our B players played safe and had fun throughout the year. Most importantly, however, we had to make sure that the boys made only incremental improvements so that they would still lack the skills necessary to play for Mr. Demello and Mr. Commisso with the A team next season. Despite our best efforts to sabotage and deter their basketball development, it is clear that we have some tremendous young talent on this team that will play on the U16 A, the JV team and the Varsity team moving forward. JL

Basketball entered the season with fairly low ectations. The previous year they had gone winless in a competitive league. This season we were very fortunate et off the "schneid" in our very first game. We defeated al St. Georges 42-26. Following a succession of loses managed to win a thrilling game versus Hillfield 29-28. victory ensured our place in the playoffs. We fought ely, but came out on the wrong end of a 45-26 score inst the eventual silver medalists Sterling Hall. The team ed with great heart and spirit no matter what the score. norable moments include Jacky Guo actually scoring in final game and Michael Wu's always unorthodox stylings.

One of the most difficult decisions I have to make during the U12 tryouts every year is how many boys to keep on the roster. It's nice to be able to develop a large number of young players, but it is also important to ensure that they will be able to contribute to a functioning team. This year, we were fortunate to have a large number of athletic and enthusiastic boys' tryout for the team, so it was an easy decision to select a large roster of 15. Although the large group made it a little challenging to have team discussions sometimes it definitely worked to our advantage as our opponents had to deal with us rolling line after line of rested players with fresh legs.

We enjoyed a very successful season, with an overall record of 12 and 2, which included a 3 and 0 record against our friends at Upper Canada College, and a second place finish in the league championship.

So, congratulations to our big men, Marchel, Jordan, and Connor and our power forwards, AJ, Charlie, and Aaron for playing tough under the basket.To our small forwards Kade, Dana, and Ostynn for helping out in the backcourt with well-placed screens. To our shooting guards Hayden, Zishan, and Matthew for skillfully inbounding the ball, and to our point guards Marcus and Kyle for the excellent jobs they both did controlling and distributing the ball. SL

As you have heard, the entire squash program had a very successful season. What I am very please with is that we have maintained a great foundation and broad base of interest in squash at St. Andrew's, thanks to the combined efforts of Mr. Numa, Mr. Bedard, and Mrs. Kang. We have 39 players at the u14 team level, 21 players on the u16 team, and 20 players on Varsity and JV teams combined; that is 80 athletes competing in a sport they have most often never played before coming to SAC. What is equally satisfying is that all of our teams challenged for a first place finish. The 1st team placed second, but we improved at all levels over the course of the season. People are often disappointed with second, but the greatest winning golfer of all time, Jack Nicklaus, also has the most second place finishes of all time. All you can do in sport is put yourself or your team in a position to win. We have won 7 of the past 9 championships and finished 2nd in our two losing seasons. 7 golds and 2 silvers is a record to be proud of.

In early November, approximately three dozen students filled the squash courts hoping for the chance to represent SAC on the U16 team. The level of play was so close that the final team ended up being 21 students. During our practices the boys would play hard, and kept one another challenged as they fought for the top seeds each week. In-between their challenge matches; they worked hard on their skills with the varsity coach, faced new competition in their box matches, and played for immunity to secure their spot in competitive play. All of the boys improved during the season but honourable mention goes to Ben Woodford, Filip Grantcharov, and Connor Woodroofe who is this year's Most Improved Player. KK

Once again this year, we ran two separate U14 Squash teams. There were 26 players on the RED teams and 13 (mostly boarder) on the WHITE team. It was really nice to have boys from Grade 5 through 8 playing together. These two teams practiced at different times so competing against each other during the season and the playoff meant something. We had a healthy rivalry. During season, the RED team finish 1st in the league with an 11-1-2 record. The WHITE team was 3rd with 7-3-4 record.

Among the 6 teams in the CISAA final tournament, our teams finished in 2nd (White) and 3rd (Red) place. Crescent proved too strong for our split squad.

Mr. Bedard, Mr. Gilroy, and I were very impressed by the level of effort, improvement, and sportsmanship. We would also like to acknowledge 1st team players: Carson Nirenberski, and Michael von Schalburg for volunteering and providing instruction throughout the season. CN

Aristole stated: "You never do anything in this world without courage. It is the greatest quality of the mind next to honour." The sport of Fencing requires both of these qualities and we had a total of 23 brave and honourable students join the team.

This year's fencing team had good results. The A team won 2 friendly tournaments against Royal St Georges. We lost a tournament against UTS, by 2 junior national women's team fencers. In the vernacular, "We got wrecked!" The B team best results were 3rd place. Just as the season was finishing the boys are looking forward to fencing more. They will have to wait till next year.

After a simply spectacular 2014, the Alpine ski team was keen to continue its success in both the CISAA and OFSAA leagues this year. To repeat the success that we had last year, however, would be a tall order given the fact that a number of our strong veteran racers graduated last year. Our teams seemed to realize this, however, and this group probably trained harder than any other team than Mr. Day and I have had in the past. What also helped our cause was a number of Middle School skiers moving up and new skiers joining our level 2 (ie club trained) race team. In our first season back from a 2 year hiatus, this team fared extremely well finishing 4th in a very challenging division. Fortunately for this group we are only graduating one skier and have a number of junior skiers moving next year. The future certainly looks bright.

Our JV team consisting of many developmental racers had little difficulty defending their championship from last year. From an early point in the season they proved that they were truly the dominant team in the league as they easily cruised to a first place finish and their second consecutive CISAA Championship.

Our Varsity Level 1 or school trained team felt a significant amount of pressure to continuing the winning ways of last year. Despite a poor result at our first race, this group of dedicated racers went on to win every other race of the season to capture the CISAA Championship for the second year in a row. This very capable group also went on to the provincial championship and captured the overall OFSAA championship by winning gold in slalom and silver in giant slalom. Being named the CISAA and provincial champions for 2015 was a great way to cap off a truly exceptional year for this group.

David Pierson has been a committed member of SAC Alpine since he started at the school in Grade 6.

Pierre-Louis Vaz came back this year from a two year hiatus to make a huge splash on our Varsity team. Pierre started skiing at SAC in Grade 7.

Andrew Clark was our assistant captain this year and has been with the team for 6 years.

Will Thompson has been one of our most competent and respected Captains in many years. He has been racing with us since Grade 6. JI season, the U14 team had a fifth race added to schedule. They tackled two Giant slalom races and slalom races before the Championship race in ruary. We began the season with the two GS races. se races proved to be good experience for both our rans and rookies. Notable finishes include Aidan ters and Jake Allen finishing 3rd and 4th respectively vel A, and Kieran Walters finishing 3rd in level B. whole, our Alpine program prides itself on the ber of hours we train, and with the extra slalom race season, Coach Inglis really pushed the boys to ome better technical slalom racers. The first slalom was a fairly easy, rhythmical course. Dillon Applebe Josh Osbourne were our top racers for the day, ing 3rd and 4th, with only a tenth of a second veen them. The following week's slalom race was a nger and much snowier. Aidan Walters had a great , finishing 4th.

Championship race was held at Craigleith. The GS in the morning was straight forward, and both the A B teams were sitting in competitive positions after 1st run. The afternoon slalom race was just what we trained for. It was a very long and challenging se with multiple vertical elements, basically the valent of a marathon for most U14 racers. Both the d B teams held their own, and everyone stayed on feet. Jake Allen led the team this week, placing 4th. r U14 Level A team finished the season in second e, behind an incredibly talented team from RSGC, e your Level B team finished the season in 3rd e. The 2015 Nordic ski team had an exceptional season in many ways. We started the season with over 30 boys trying out for the team. It wasn't all that long ago that the entire team, including coaches fit into one school van. This year, we selected 23 boys to stay with the team for the season. Once again, half of these boys were first year skiers, but whether new or veteran skiers, all were willing to put in the time and effort to build a championship team.

Our CISAA Championship took place at Hardwood Hills, near Collingwood, and it was a combined meet with four other athletic associations. Our Junior Team won the Gold Medal, with new skier Ryan Jamieson taking 2nd place, and veterans Owen Dawson in 3rd, Nolan Roy in 4th and Oliver Harris in 5th place. Our Senior Team also won the Gold medal, with Austin Valjas in 1st place, Andrew Ladouceur in 2nd, Logan Ward in 5th place and new skier James Scott taking a 6th place. Both teams qualified to represent CISAA at our OFSAA Championship, which was held at Laurentian University in Sudbury.

The first day of individual racing was extremely challenging due to the cold. At the height of the day, we reached minus 20, without the wind chill. By the end of the day, we were happy to be alive. We weren't totally happy with our race results, but we knew we had more to offer for day two at the Team relays. The temperature increased to a balmy minus 17 for day two, but we were better prepared mentally for the challenges that lay ahead.

The qualifying team race required us to be in the top four of our heat in order to make it through to the finals. Fortunately, we had a solid run from each of our four seniors and St. Andrew's cruised to the finish line in 3rd; We were into the finals. An hour later, our team was gearing up for the biggest race of the year and possibly the finest performance of any Nordic team in the history of St. Andrew's College. Andrew Ladouceur had a great race start and came through the first leg in 3rd place with 4th on his heels. Logan Ward hit the first hill and suddenly kicked in his afterburners, moving us into 2nd place, which he held until his tag off to Ben Harrison. Ben held his ground through the major hill climb, refusing to let anyone pass, but two racers managed to sneak past at the back end of the course, putting us in 4th position at the final transition. Austin Valjas took off with a mission and had a great run. As he approached the finish line, we saw that he had put us back into 3rd position and was biting at the heels of 2nd place. The roar at the finish line was deafening. For the first time ever, the Saints brought home the Bronze medal at the OFSAA Championship. Well Done, Boys. AK & BM

T first challenge is that when players arrive in November, few, if any have ever played the game before. Unlike most other sports, new players don't know the basic rules, many don't know how to score a game, a few know how to deliver or sweep a stone. With patience and hard work, players quickly learn and begin to thrive. With perseverance, they improve, and can begin to compete.

T second challenge is that unlike many sports, coaches are required to sit behind glass throughout a match. We aren't able to communicate with our players except for during the half time break and if our players d de they want to call their one timeout. Notice the emphasis is on the players. This game is played and decisions are made on the ice, and there is no referee. The challenge for coaches is that we are left to p e behind the glass. We have to trust skips to make good strategic decisions and to manage their players' mental and physical well-being. Ultimately, the game is in their hands.

I l you this because this year was, in the opinion of the coaching staff, our best year to-date. We had a very high percentage of new players when we began the season. Not only did these boys dedicate themselves t arning and improving every day, they wanted to be competitive and quickly developed a drive and passion for the sport. They accepted coaching and worked incredibly hard to become better players. This was s ported by a core of returning players who helped to educate the rookies on the rules and etiquette of the game, including two skips who could be counted on to make good decisions on the ice. Ultimately, what th means is that although we graduate two players who have been the backbone of SAC curling for a number of years, the future of the game here is very bright.

A a recap of the season: Our Open Division team, skipped by Zakir Virani finished the season with 5 wins, 3 losses. They lost their heartbreaking semi-final match on the final stone after clawing their way back into th game.

O Boys Division team, skipped by Brandon Coverdale was undefeated over regular season play. They controlled the majority of their final game against TFS to win the CISAA championship in convincing fashion.

Varsity Rugby

Coming off our worst season on record with a good number of returning players, Coach Shields and I were unsure about the 2015 season, but our fears were soon shattered. We went to the CAIS tournament and showed that we had the strength to play patient slow ball rugby as well as the breakout speed to score from anywhere on the field. We racked up some good scores but lost a couple of key players en route to an incredibly close loss to TCS in the National finals. We entered the CISAA playoffs from fourth place but again needed to beat TCS in the semi-finals. It was not to be as they ended their season undefeated. A very strong season in which we were just 2 kicks short of a CAIS Championship. Well done lads.

Rugby is a great game to learn things about yourself. How to think and act under tremendous pressure, how to control yourself under stress and pain, how to push the limits of endurance while still thinking clearly and making rapid tactical decisions every second. How to work on cardio fitness and core strength when everyone else is just bulking up.

This year's team was a hard-working and skilled group. It is a testament to their character that we earned only one yellow card for foul play, we got numerous compliments from other coaches on what a good bunch of guys our players were, and we were the class of the CAIS Tournament – we are the team the other schools like to cheer for. We started the season with 33 players on our roster, and ended with 34! What a great team!

We are saying farewell to DavidBrowne – an agile and-hard running back
AidanCalverly – a Gr 12 rookie who ended up a starter
QuenCampbell – a versatile back capable of playing any position, and he did!
CharlesCoppa – another Gr 12 rookie playing rugby for the very first time RileyFischer – a Gr 12 rookie and yet one of the dominant props in the league. Well done Big Trout.
KrisztianFockter – what? another Gr 12 rookie and a fantastic flanker LiamJoiner – a SAC rugby veteran and team leader. Liam is going on to play for Queens next year.
MacLewis – one of the fastest and most elusive runners in the league, he scored 30 points in 6 games.
MarkMackey – yet another Gr 12 rookie who not only started but scored 37 points on the season.
DuncanRobertson – our pack leader, and a menace at the ruck. Our season highlight is surely Duncan single-handedly firing 3 UCC players out of a ruck they thought they'd already won.
ConradScullion-Smeenk – what?! another Gr 12 rookie who ended up starting half our games this season.
JosephShields – finally someone who has come through our SAC rugby program, a versatile forward and a total team player FraserSopik – Fraz. Enough Said. For now.
BenThompson – a speedy back with great defensive line pressure. His highlight was a 60 m cut-out run against TCS.
As far as I know only Liam is committed to university rugby – at Queens where they have 5 teams – 5 because rugby is a game that you learn by playing not by practicing, so there's no such thing as being a practice player in university rugby – you work your way up through the school's multiple team system. Two of our recent grads – Mark Denton and Cole Sopik – have done that and are starting for Western's 1st Team next year. Kevin Rush should be doing the same at Queens.
I know that there are a few among you considering rugby at university. I encourage you to give it a try – it is one of the great social games which you can play into your 40's and be involved in for a lifetime.

To all of you: it has been a true pleasure coaching you. Really. No matter what sports you play in the future, play something and stay in touch over the years - and please come back to cheer us on each spring. JB & GS

As the season opened, Mr. Gilroy, Mr. Morton and I were quite excited about our prospects. On paper we had the makings of a very strong team which undoubtedly could have challenge for the league championship.

After our first game where we beat Hillfield quite handedly, we hosted the provincial team from Newfoundland for a "friendly" match. This game was truly the highlight of our season as we were able to convincingly beat this talented squad. Unfortunately, however, this game was the beginning of our downfall. We had numerous injuries to key players from this match, and sadly, these injuries continued to plague for the rest of the season. I don't think that we had more than 70% of our starting 15 playing any given game after this game, and our inexperience, especially while on defense, led to some rather lopsided losses.
We finished the year 3-4, which was good enough for 5th place in our league. While this was quite disappointing, we do have a lot of young players returning next year. Hopefully, we will be in a position to recover from this "character building season" and find more success in future.

Special thanks to Mr. Morton for coming out to coach with us on his "term-off" and provide the much needed intensity on the sidelines. Also, a huge shout out to Heather and Drew in the Athletic Therapy Clinic who seemed to spend most of their day dealing with the never-ending stream of U16 Rugby players coming to them for treatment. JI

The U14 rugby squad competed in three 7s tournaments and the finals at Sunnybrook Park in Toronto. At first they played a safe, uncertain style, but they soon realized the need to go forward with confidence. This produced some fine tries, most notably in the final game of the season. In this game, the boys played by far the most competitive and assertive rugby, and only narrowly lost in sudden death overtime to a team from Greenwood. Notable through the season for their effort, improvement in skills and teamwork were Thomas Childerhouse, Stirling Cochran, Sam Crowder, who captained the team, Sean Denton, Nicolas Irurita and Chris Yi. SS

This term, the U13 Rugby team was pulled from league play due to its youth, but our dedicated Middle School Rugby Club remained and had a great season of developmental play. It's truly impressive that a group of athletes would endure a whole term of practices with no real games. They did it just for the love of the game. While it may not be appropriate for us to choose an MVP or MIP since we never competed against anyone, there are some members that deserve mentioning.

Chris Childerhose who was so strong he was moved up to the U14 team; Cole D'Angelo, always fearless and fast and preferred to play with his shirt off; Daniel Iwai, quite possibly the most injured player off the field proving that rugby is not as dangerous as everyone thinks; Daniel Kraik who always brought his all to practices and drills and is an all-around great athlete and leader; Aaron Mizrahi, the player with the biggest smile on his face; and Duncan Smith, by far the best tackler on the team—he could bring down a giant!

Coach Scheepers and I would like to commend the entire squad for their enthusiasm, focus on skill development and fierce tackles. We look forward to seeing you all on the pitch next year. SS & TP

Today we celebrate the success of our season, say good-bye to our graduating players, and thank those who supported our bid for a third consecutive championship.
As for most worthwhile pursuits, success only came with dedication, discipline, focus, and with the support of our athletic director Mr.Bedard. With several of our players being coached by club professionals, my primary role is to integrate these elite players with our own 'home-grown' types with a look to future years and the hope that some of the skills will be passed down.
As I have stood here and said before, the skill level in our league is diverse. The only real competition came from UCC, RSGC, TCS, and dark horse TMS. Our undefeated season did not ncessarily mean the CISAA championship tournament would be a 'slam-dunk'.
Last week, 15 independent schools sent teams to the CISAA Championship tournament at Humber College. Each team fields 3 singles players, and 2 doubles teams. Both individual medals and a school team championship are up for grabs. Seeded first in all categories, the pressure was on for our 'Super-Seven' to deliver. And deliver they did. A clean sweep with 5 gold medal finishes and our third consecutive CISAA Championship!
Andre Chan; #1 Singles Player – Gold medal.
David Huang; #2 Singles Player – Gold medal.
Field Tian; #3 Singles Player – Gold medal.
Jason Zhang & Kyle Chen #1 Doubles Team – Gold medal.
Justin Lee & Yan Xu #2 Doubles Team – Gold medal.

A special thanks to our development players: JongHoon Kim, Andrew Crawford, Andy Park, Gary Zhou, Tiger Xu, and graduating player and head of team security, Victor Reshetnikov.
My sincere thanks to our our graduating players, Andre, Field, Justin, Jason, and Victor. I'll draw on what I have learned from you as we rebuild next year.

Despite having an unusually short season, the U16 Badminton team gave it their all and they had a pretty good season. With only 4 returning members our focus was on developing skills and building new partnerships. It was a rocky journey but after our short 4 four game season with 2 wins and two losses we were able to establish a solid group of 7 players. As we drove to Crescent school for the CISAA tournament, which felt like a lifetime for at least one of our players, I wasn't sure what the outcome would be but one thing I did know was that I could trust the boys would play their best to compete. That's exactly what they did. Overall we placed at a respectable third place earning both Gold in first doubles, for Jeffery Chen and Niklas Seidel, and Silver in first singles for Baron Liu. Congratulations boys.

This season's MIP is awarded to a member of a doubles team who last season could have be considered dysfunctional. The only communication they had was constant bickering. However, this season they both have grown and matured as individuals as well as partners. It is because of Niklas Seidel's and Jeffery Chen's skills, communication, and dedication to the team that makes them equally deserving of the title and I would be remiss if I did not recognize both players, however, there can only be one winner. This season's MIP is Jeffery Chen.

This season's MVP is both a leader on and off the court. He is strong badminton player and uses those skills to help coach his fellow teammates which allowed him to be a strong Captain. His near perfect season makes him one of our top players. This season's MVP is Baron Liu. DJ aseball team entered 2015 with very high expectations. Our team graduated only one starter from last year, and after the long winter we were eager to begin the season. We began the season with Mr. sity....also known as Mr. Papalia, spearheading a bunch of great drills inside to prepare us for the season. It seemed to work and we began the season on a tear.

rst tournament in late April featured a trip to Port Hope and a birth in their Ontario Showcase tournament. Once again we dominated the tournament and won the tournament final with a 9-3 victory over St. s from Cobourg. We then hosted our own tournament which we won with a 6-1 with victories over King City and Our Lady of the Lake who are a lot better than they sound. From there we moved on to the tt Styles memorial tournament with some very strong teams from York Region. We knew that this would be an excellent test and we rose to the challenge playing excellent baseball en route to an 8-5 victory he number one ranked team in York Region. Jack Little was outstanding on the mound and at the plate that day to win tournament MVP.

this tournament win was great, our season highlight was a regular season game vs St. Mike's. I've been coaching the team for 11 years, almost all of that time with Mr. Gurr, and in all those years, we had n them a total of ONCE. We were close on a couple of occasions and lost a couple heartbreakers but only once did we win. This day we were ready. Austin Hassani was spectacular on the mound and threw r than we've ever seen him. He kept the ball down in the stike zone, kept bad guys off balance with a great curve ball that we could consistently throw for strikes and we defeated them 5-3. It was spectacular. Mr. Intensity was happy! However, this elation was short lived as we met them again in the CISAA championship game. We were not as fortunate the second time around and we made some uncharacteristic s in the field that day. One thing you can't do against a strong opponent is give them more outs than they are entitled to and when the dust settled, we lost 10-3. We ended the season with 14 wins and only 1 loss st the one that mattered most. While we didn't win, it was probably the finest season we've ever had on the field. He had a team that could crush the baseball and we had some great times. Here are a couple of examples;

ntensity was not happy about how hard one of our players ran down the line at out tournament. All of us on the coaching staff believe in playing the game the right way and after one look at Mr. Papalia, LG and I he was furious. We knew Mt. Papalia was about to blow. His face was all red and he was flexing his hands. Just when we thought he was about to blow, he was gone. Not in the dugout. Gone. Then LG saw him the distance running to the bus. I think he might have started banging out pushups in the parking lot. When he came back we said, "where were you?" He calmly said, "I was upset. Had to touch the bus. I was angry and filled with rage, but now I feel good." From that point on, every time something didn't go our way, we'd say, Paps, better go touch the bus.....

e also witnessed some of the worst homerun trots of all-time over the last two years. Last year we had Pappa Grande, Jacob Labrier, slow trot to first when is ball slammed against the wall. This year we enjoyed xact opposite experience. Justin McNamara hit a towering homer to right. He came out of the box in a hurry (Mr. Papalia would have been proud!) as he thought it wasn't a homer and ran as fast as he could d the bases...I put up the relax sign....then he stopped and went back to second and stood there....the umpire had to tell him it was a homer. Then he acted all cool and did the slow trot the rest of the way. You see that in the majors.

ad a couple of excellent managers this year. One of them would often get distracted with other things. When we asked Matt Iwai one day where the other team was in their order, he said, "honestly man, I have ea..."

y, a quick story about our flame-throwing rookie, Tyler Black. We knew he was a pitcher so we threw him in during the tournament in Port Hope. It was cold that day and he started complaining about how he n't feel the ball and his hand was "frozen." Then, on the mound, he started looking at it. He started holding it up and looking at it under the lights. Then he started holding it with his other non-frozen hand. It was erizing. I think he actually started talking to it. Me and Mr. Gurr were talking in the dugout saying "go out and see what going on", and I said, "forget it, I don't want to interrupt." Then, to top it off, we look out and rted slapping it against his leg. From that point on, I forgot Tyler's name, we just referred to him as "the hand". Funny thing was, the next time he pitched, it was a beautiful, hot summer day, 85C, and he still d slapping it against his leg.....TB

I know everyone is expecting me to have a funny speech but after my car accident and missing school for three months, I can't really ad lib anymore. I have a tendency to forget words and lose focus on what I was talking about. So this will be short and sweet and I'll just read what I wrote down yesterday. Sorry.
The U12 Baseball Saints started the year with a very enthusiastic group of players. We had several talented hold overs from last year but we added many skilled grade 5 players which made the try out period difficult. With our roster finalized we headed in the annual UCC mini-meet where we usually get our butts handed to us… usually by UCC. However, this year we lost to their Tier one team by one run in the final inning and beat their tier 2 team. And as my great grandmother once said to me, "You are so handsome, Tim."
We went through the season undefeated in our division and headed into the playoffs with a 6 – 0 record. It reminded me of when I was a young boy and how I liked the feel of panty hose on my skin. We managed to make it to the finals in the year end tournament where we lost to UCC by a score of 9 – 8. We still had an opportunity to win, if UCC lost to Crestwood Prep whom we beat 10 – 4. In the end, UCC beat Crestwood by one single run and we were out. Once again the great 80's band of my high school days put it so eloquently, "This much is true. This much is true. I know this much is true - ue." BK

There is something about softball that is different from most of the sports that my own children play including hockey and lacrosse. You certainly don't hear the fans screaming "Attack!", "Hit him!", or "It is all the goalie's fault". There is lots of cheering, the sun is shining most days, and overall everyone seems to be having a fun time, even when they haven't won a game. This was not our season to shine, if you measure the success of a team only by the number of wins. However, this was a season of many accomplishments and many good times. We had a few exciting homeruns - Eugene, Marshall, and Arya, well done! A few double-plays, some amazing catches in the outfield and best of all, many smiling boys at the end of a great practice or a close game. RB & AK

hlights of the 2015 track and field season s season things began as they usually do the coaches introduce themselves, we list the meets we will attend and then the grade 9's proceed to tell us how y won their event in elementary school. Meanwhile the returning older athletes wonder how they will manage to get their name on the track and field record ırd.

s season had many highlights. Did you all know that Mr. Galajda's favorite place to be in April is Midland. Why, because it is the site of 2 track meets, and year the weather was wonderful and it allowed the team to attain good performances and experience prior to the CISSA Championships.

he CISAA Championships many solid performances were achieved. The senior boys 4 x 100m team (JD Falconer, Josh Carter, Austin Valjas, Jon Femi-e, and Jacob Edwards), narrowly missed the gold. Callum Murphy wins the long jump and second in the pole vault. Dara Goharchi improves his javelin, tthew Galajda wins the silver in the discus narrowly beating Angellis Prattas. Conor Woodroffe wins 2 bronze in the 800m and 1500m events. Ryan nieson in the high jump and Sam Mattarazzo in the high jump and the triple jump. And finally the pole vaulters managed to nearly sweep the three age sion events.

tro Qualifiers.
s year we had many qualifiers and they are: Austin Valjas, Devon Walters, Angelis Prattas, Matthew Galajda, Conor Woodruffe, Joseph Yazdani, Allan Hu, h Mwinygloee, Callum Murphy, JP Martin, Ivan Kam, Dara Goharchi, Sam Matarazzo, Ryan Jamieson, and Christian Wallace. 15 boys qualified for 17 nts.

The Middle School Track and Field team has the unique opportunity to compete in all track events throughout the season. For some, they love that they have the chance to run, jump and throw at every meet. For others, the idea of running 1500 meters is pure torture. However, as the season progressed, everyone was pleasantly surprised with how much further and faster they can run with some training and hard work. With a variety of strengths in different events, the students began to teach and help one another in their throws and jumps. Footwork is a tricky skill to learn, but our athletes quickly caught on to the importance of maintaining a consistent and balanced posture. The highlights of the year included the relay races at St. Mike's Relay Meet, Cole's high-jump-off a CISAA, and Aiden's first place finish in the 200m Dash. It is unfortunate that, due to age regulations, some of our students could not compete in the CISAA finals. We would like to thank them for their intensity and dedication at all practices and meets; they set the bar very high for the rest of their team.

Our U12 MVP is a student who is continuing to impress us with his throwing abilities and strength in both shot put and javelin. Our MIP's enthusiasm and dedication to the sport is contagious to his teammates. Congratulations to our MVP, Mattias Jentsch and our MIP, Jordan Trajkovski. The U13 boys had two strong leaders in the group, winning ribbons in multiple running, jumping and throwing events. Congratulations to our MVP, Cole Nip, and our MIP, Aidan Walters. Finally, our U14 MVP, Frank Yang, set the bar high for his teammates, especially in running events and high jump. Our MIP, Alexander Smith made huge strides since he joined the team in late March, and his coaches are so proud of his success. Congratulations to all award winners. WH

The Senior Tennis league features 13 teams, separated into two divisions. 4 teams from each division make the playoffs. St. Andrew's finished 2nd in the West division which qualified the team for the CISAA Final 8. We ended that day one point ahead of St. Mike's for 3rd place. UCC and Crescent were out of reach. In the words of the UCC athletic director, tennis is its most successful program. They have won 22 championships in the last 25 years. The other three were won by Crescent who looks poised to win in the near future. Our last championship (one of two) came 35 years ago.

Our top 8 players are eligible to be back next year and there are some good players in the middle school, so we hope to close the gap on those two schools. I hope I have motivated to be part of the solution and that you are not planning to transfer to UCC or CS.

Junior tennis in Canada needs to do something about the behaviour, the integrity (line calls), and the sportsmanship of its players. It's not a nice culture. With that in mind, I could not be more proud of the boys who represented SAC on the courts this season. There is no doubt that the other schools learned something from our guys. The feedback from other coaches was always very positive. Following one match against James Stevenson, I congratulated his opponent on his play and his behaviour. This Crescent student who plays a tournament every week in the summer, responded by saying that James was the nicest person he has ever played. Anyone else who watched or played Victor, Jake, Melvin, and Andres and so on saw exactly the same thing. PB

It was a fun, low-pressure season, where everyone learned a lot, including the "coach," Mr. Wyatt. Thanks go out to our visiting coach Terry Redvers for volunteering his expert instruction. We didn't expect a strong result in U16 tennis, but were pleased to walk out of the finals in second...last place.

Our MVP was dubbed Elvis by one of our bus drivers for his magnificent hair and signature swagger; he was also our first singles player who set a great example of competitiveness, tempered with humility and a calm demeanor. He regularly faced off against the best players from much stronger teams, and never looked out of place in top competition. Congratulations to our MVP, Juan Bernardo Padilla!

Our MIP started the season fairly low on the depth chart, but kept finding ways to get onto game rosters. He went from a bubble player to a steady teammate who simply kept returning the ball, keeping it in play--a strategy that many of our players could stand to adopt. This young man also exhibited outstanding sportsmanship and generosity by giving up his starting spot in the championships to another player who desperately wanted to represent S.A.C one last time before moving back to Mexico. For being our Most Improved Player and for setting a great example of Andrean brotherhood, congratulations to our MIP Tarun Sethi! MW

The U14 tennis season began in the Bedard Gym, with players hitting against the walls, serving into a lacrosse net, and attempting to hit to each other in some sort of controlled fashion. And this was how the team was formed. With only 4 returning players we welcomed 7 new Andreans to our team. After weeks of in-door tennis drills and ridiculously challenging Insanity workouts, we finally got out onto the courts. 4 weeks later, and 4 matches later, our season was done. Collectively, they managed to defeat Ridley and Appelby but lost to UCC Prep and Crescent. This was enough to keep us out of the CISAA by only one individual match. We say goodbye to Willem Grier, Robert Krueger, JuanPablo de Pedro, Nico Alverde and Matteo Derbredrosian. Mr Wyatt is gaining some amazing talent next year for U16 tennis! RO

JV Lacrosse

Last spring saw our first losing season in well over a decade with a 7-17 record with a very young team. In my athletic assembly speech last year, I commented that our younger players had learned, improved and grown as lacrosse players, and that the future definitely looks bright again for SAC lacrosse! Your 2015 varsity saints did not disappoint and to date have amassed a record of 16-9 with four of those losses to US teams, three to the #1 OFSAA AAA/AAAA seeded St. Mike's and the final two in overtime to other top four AAA/AAAA teams. This season's turnaround has resulted in the boys heading into A/AA OFSAA seeded second behind undefeated McKinnon Park from Caledonia/Six Nations. While 8 of our players furthered their development last fall by playing in the Ontario U19 fall league with coach Commisso and I, we were also bolstered by the addition of several grade 11's who moved up from JV, as well as Team Ontario box players Jacob Miller and Cam MacDonald, Edge Elite player Matt Thom, and the return of Griffin James and eventually, Darren Iwai!Our season began with our annual trip to Columbus, Ohio for the Annual Wildcat Classic tournament in which the boys went 1-2 after only two full practices thanks to the winter that would never end! While in town, the team toured Ohio Wesleyan University and saw OWU pound newcomer Hiram 30-1! Two weeks later we headed to NY State where we beat two strong teams, toured both Elmira College and Hartwick College, and saw the two college teams play each other. The team's outstanding play that weekend resulted in several phone calls and emails from DII and DIII coaches that watched our boys play. Back home in mid-April we won our annual 4 team early bird tournament with a 3-0 sweep and followed that up with our annual 8 team Championship tournament in which we finished second after losing in double overtime to St. Pete's. Our last tournament was at Trent University where we defeated two very strong A/AA teams that we will see again at OFSAA, but finished second in the tournament when we lost the third game in "Braveheart" – lacrosse's overtime version of 1 on 1!. In the CISAA we regained our dominance over UCC, defeating them in all three meetings including 12-6 in front of a home crowd in the semifinals. The CISAA championship game at St. Mike's was an epic battle, but despite an outstanding defensive effort from the boys, the St. Mike's depth simply wore us down and resulted in a silver medal finish for the Saints by a score of 8-2. Over the course of 25 games, the boys have put together a fantastic season so far. The season culminates this Tuesday and Wednesday as we host A/AA OFSAA here at SAC. Our opening game Tuesday will be at 10:15 vs. Huntsville, followed by a 5:15 game vs. Msgr. Pereyma from Oshawa. We need to win our pool to advance to the medal round on Wednesday. GR

One of the most admirable traits of the U14 programs at SAC is that we draw athletes from grades 5 through 8 to compile our teams. This presents several unique challenges for our boys as they often, like in lacrosse, play against much older boys. What I admire most about our boys is their willingness to take on the challenge of a highly physical and sometimes brutal sport and continue to persevere. These young men did exactly that this season. Coach Chadsey and I knew from the start that with so many new players to the game, we were in for a rough ride. We had a strong first line up but that was it and we were further challenged by the lack of available practice time due to the weather and other SACisms. We even had a glorious run from our goalie to score a goal! Our boys came a very long way in only a few weeks. With only losses to inspire us, we continued to practice and actually held UCC, surprising them with a much stronger defense and offensive attack than they expected. Although we lost the match, we were much better prepared to face St. Mike's in the semi-final. At half, we were down only 3-0, and were showing them a much deeper defense than they had seen the previous games against us. Even though a high light for some of our guys was probably our pizza lunch, they should be very proud of the courage they displayed playing more experienced and physically bigger teams. We wish our grads good luck with the JV squad next year and look forward to exposing a few new players to the great game of lacrosse next season. FC & MC

We continued our strategy of development started last year. Once again, we had three junior age players Michael Von Schelburg, Kody Clark and Matthew Medhurst playing on the senior team and some young junior players on the junior team, including Andrew Kraik who is in grade 7.The senior team had good results finishing in 2nd place after the four tournament season and the junior team finishing in 6th place. As a result both teams advanced to the Championship tournament. Woodington Lakes the home of the championship is a challenging course with many hills and blind shots. The 18th hole is always dreaded by most of the players and this year it crushed our dreams. The Senior team finished in 5th place and the Junior team finished in 6th place.All was not lost as we had some excellent individual results with four of the five senior players breaking 80 at least once in tournament play. One junior player breaking 80 twice during the season and some excellent inter squad competition for bragging rights in any particular week.There were some doubts as to whether the most improved player on the senior team would even play in any tournaments this year. He had a very poor season last year but with renewed determination started showing better form at this year's tryout. As our fifth seed his scores improved over the course of the season and in the final two tournaments his scores counted as part of the four man cumulative team score. Mrs. McCue and I have been very fortunate to work with some absolutely outstanding athletes this season. We had a large group of new triathletes join the team this year who have taken to the sport remarkably well. The future of the team looks very bright, indeed. Sadly, there are also a large number of triathletes who will be graduating this year. Jordan Brown, for instance, has been with the team for an incredible 7 years. It takes a special kind of kid to join the team in the Middle School and still be able to hold his own while surrounded by senior students. I want to thank Jordan for his dedication to the team and his guidance and leadership as one of our captains this year. Our triathletes had a number of events where they competed as individuals and others as a team. We started the year with two 10km running races, one of which was a tough mudder-style obstacle course run. The guys learned a lot about digging deep to overcome the challenges and worked together as a team to accomplish the common goal. Once our triathlon season began, our boys demonstrated that they were ready to compete and prepared to win. Nolan Garnett earned 1st place in the junior division and Andrew Ladouceur and Justin Lai earned 1st and 2nd place respectively in the senior division of the Ancaster triathlon. Days later, Michael Kurp captured a silver medal in the junior division and Justin Lai and Jordan Brown earned silver and bronze in the senior division at the Kids of Steel triathlon in Caledon. This weekend, our boys will be traveling to Peterborough for what will be the most challenging open-water swim of their lives. Not only will the water be frigid, but the distance is a massive 4km. For the record, that is a greater distance than our annual cross country run at St. Andrew's. The boys are looking forward to the challenge of this race and our final triathlon of the season in Milton on June the 7th. KR & CM

Another great season of fabulous cricket! After a run of 5 championship titles over the last 7 seasons, this year we had to settle for silver. A colleague recently told me that the only thing longer than a cricket game are my First-Class email write-ups. I now realize what a slow reader he is, as our last two games took close to 6 hours each! We actually came within one hit of being co-champions, falling just short on the very last ball of our final, full 60 over game. We simply ran out of time. The massive final score of 173 to 168 ever-so-slightly in favour of UCC was clearly a testament to how powerful our batters were – for once, stronger than our usually deadly bowling attack. In only 4 league games, we ran up an impressive 410 run total and could have scored considerably higher, but cricket is a game where the match ends once the winning side makes at least one more run than the opposition, so in our 1st game against TCS, we had to stop just as we were getting warmed up. Our bowling was still pretty good, with lots of depth, seeing 9 different boys step up to deliver in league games.

There would be no late April let-up in practice intensity this year, much of which I can attribute much to the incredibly dedicated leadership of our three captains, the best we've had. Patrick brought his "A" game energy, focus, and selfless encouragement to every practice, and was ably supported by Dhruv and Aydden. In game situations, captains have to be highly cognizant of their team-mates' strengths and weaknesses, and consequently, make fine adjustments in player fielding positions before each of a possible 180 balls bowled. Our three brought plenty of experience, patience, and passion to all on and off-field activity. Without going into too much detail, I'd like to especially admire Aydden Almadi, who, in one particularly unfortunate situation, demonstrated more maturity and compassion than many of the adults around him. Thank you for that, Aydden. Your wisdom will be long remembered. Our other captain you all know well: the Master of all-things-Andrean, Dhruv Krishnan. This was his 4th and final year with the team, his most complete performance, excelling in all aspects of the game. He scored 57 runs, took 6 wickets, and could always be counted on to rev the team up before games and provide insightful analysis and constructive criticism post game.

Cricketers learn to catch 100 mph balls deep in the outfield with bare hands. It's a difficult skill, and the best examples of mastery this year were delivered by our accomplished wicket keeper, Dylan van Eeden, and our ever-stylish islander, Trew Morris. Bravo!

We've definitely improved every game, and no doubt if we were still playing matches in late May we'd be nearly unbeatable.

Losing over half the team and most of our starting 11 will make for a real challenge next year, but one we readily accept, looking forward to welcoming in a fresh batch of enthusiatic athletes from within this crowd and from that eager batch of new boys come September. We have a great core of young guys to rebuild with, and rebuild we will! There's no denying cricket is a unique game, even for the 2nd most popular sport in the world. Curiously, our Independent School league has had only 3 teams in it for about 20 years now, and yet tomorrow I'll be down in Toronto watching some excellent cricket matches, where the best of over 100 GTA public high school teams will be battling it out for top spot. Surely, it won't be long before our league once again swells and better represents the popularity of the sport internationally.

The boys have had as much on the EDSBY cricket conference as on the field, and I won't miss my daily chore of having to delete Jack's contributions … And then there are team trips: remember, what happens on a cricket bus STAYS on a cricket team bus! DK

There is always a positive and a negative side to every story. I'm graduating from St. Andrew's College, definitely the best school ever. I've made lots of friends and shared the best memories of my life with them. I'm really sad to leave; I guess this is the negative side of this story. On the bright side though, I am going to be attending Acadia University this fall. Mr. MacPherson who's my house master and one of the teachers who impacted me the most is an alumnus. He shared lots of good memories that he made in Acadia and told "This is the time were you make the best memories". In the end, I want to thank god (god of all), my parents, friends, and every staff in St. Andrew's. I can name so many people who helped and I just want to tell them that I can't be more grateful for all the support.

When I first came to St. Andrew's In grade six I was overwhelmed by the sense of community, instantly feeling welcome as a brother was a heart warming experience that I will never forget. As soon as I walked into St. Andrew's, opportunity has been knocking on my door building me up to be a better person. My involvement in the school with leadership, sports, academics and music has broadened my horizons immensely and has opened countless doors for me in my future. From the connections made in the McEwen program to the countless friends made and events played in the pipes and drums I can truly say that I have made the best of my academic and co-curricular high school experience. Despite these experiences my true love for St. Andrew's is due to the friends I have made who I can truly call my brothers. Through the good and the bad times they have been there for me and I truly believe that they always will be. From the idiotic remarks, and obsessions, to poking fun at each other for the stupidest things; Tim's runs, to visiting the ricers. These are the days that I will remember for the rest of my life, these are the experiences that I will relive and these are the people that I will share it with.

ter grade eight, I wanted to become independent and self-sufficient and also broaden my horizons of the world. My biggest challenge was that I was growing up in a protected ıd secure environment in Hong Kong. In order to challenge myself, I decided to go to school in Toronto, about 10000 miles from my hometown. The first year at St. Andrew's ollege was the most arduous. I had to adapt to the language and living in a new place. Fortunately, two senior students helped me to get adjusted to my new school's routines ıd traditions. I was inspired by them and I gradually started to that I belonged in this new environment.
ıring these four years at SAC, I learned to be independent, face new challenges and make many decisions on my own.
y biggest highlight of the year was the gathering of my last Carol Service and getting the opportunity to play for the Wind Ensemble and sing "O Come All Ye Faithful" with my others.
vould like to thanks to all my teachers and advisor for helping me to become a more independent, dedicated person. Also want to thanks my parents for providing me this ecious opportunity to attend SAC. The experience at SAC was unforgettable and unreal!

When I look back on my time at St. Andrew's, I'm not going to remember when I failed that geography test in grade 9, but I'm going to remember the times I've spent with my friends and teachers fooling around in and outside of the class. I'm going to remember the time Aaron, Brian, Mark and I climbed Base Borden to get back our Frisbee. I'm going to remember the gnome we broke at Camp Onondaga in grade six. I'm going to remember the countless times hanging out with my friends in the Gallery and talking about the most random things. I'm going to remember the teachers and friends that have helped me become the person I am today. Thank you Mr. Trevisan for pushing me to improve my writing to another level. Thank you Ms. Kang for spending so much time reading with me. Thank you my family for giving me the opportunity to come to St. Andrew's. Thank you so much Ms. Scheepers for the countless times you've supported me throughout the years, never failing to make me smile when I needed it the most. Thank you to all of my friends and teachers who've put up with me for the past seven years. People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but I'll never forget the joy my friends and teachers made me feel while at St. Andrew's. Peace out y'all.

Grade 7 seems so far away, but it feels like it was yesterday that I walked through the Door of R214 for Mrs. Elliott's, and Mr. Hanson's advisory classroom. I was walking in to school of complete strangers. However, 6 years later I am graduating with those people, many of whom I will remain in contact with forever. These 6 years have been filled with many emotions. Frustration, Joy, Anguish, Satisfaction, any many more, and I do not regret a single moment. I am grateful to have been a part of so much of what was offered here at this School some of which include being on the Alpine ski team since I was in grade seven, Picking up the practice Chanter to try out the bagpipes in grade 8, Bawling my eyes out at Carol Service, and many great trips around the world. I owe so much to my parents, and especially to brothers. Without their constant support even at my worst times life at SAC would have been much duller. These men have seen me at my best and at my worst but can't tell the difference. We spent hours doing shenanigans like yelling Morrissey and Commisso, or constantly going to Tim's at any possible moment. I will be parting ways with many of this fine gentleman but I'm sure we will meet up again in the Future. I have too many of them to name, so I will summarize it in a way that will seem confusing, but they will all understand. It's all just asparagus and more.

I came to SAC in grade 9 not knowing what to expect. SAC has many traditions like cadets and the carol service which many people know about. What I will miss the most are the smaller traditions that only the guys that went to SAC know about like eating the Haggis with all my friends in the boarding houses or the teacher vs grad games that I watched and then took part in in my last year. My favorite memory at SAC will be the four years I sang at the carol service. In my first year I never truly appreciated the carol service but in my final year I understood how big of an impact it had on me. I will miss all of SAC's traditions and most importantly I will miss my brothers and the teachers that helped me through my four years here at SAC.

After 7 years, it's time to say good-bye. These 7 years have been a challenge, but one that was definitely worth accepting. I've tried many things at this school which I never h expected to try. Not only did I continue with music, but I excelled at it. Also, I was able to get into curling through the school, where I lead my team to four consecutive championships, including 3 undefeated seasons. I was also able to join many different clubs and councils I'd never new existed before. I was most proud of my accomplishme in the Wind Ensemble, becoming a leader and a skilled musician. I'd like to thank my parents for letting me come to such a nice school, my brother for showing me the way to excel here, Mr. Giel for showing me my interest in the field of accounting and Ms. Chasson for giving me a place where I could not only be involved, but make a difference.
Challenge Completed

Comment: It was all good. I'd like to thank my parents for obviously sending me here as this was an experience to remember. I'd also like to thank Evan Forth and many more for their support and help I received from them; also a shout out to Zakir Virani for being a brother from another mother. I would like to thank my advisor, Ms. Scheepers for all her advice and support she has given me for my time at St. Andrew's.

What does it mean to "be a Andrean"? To understand that you must look deeper than the great nights out, the laughs, ups and downs, and all the missed assignment due dates. To understand the meaning of "Andrean" you must listen and feel for the moments you don't realize you would miss. You feel it on your very last cadet inspection, and you see and hear it for 1st football on homecoming. It's a simple feeling, one that epitomizes our connection to this great institution. It is the love you receive from your family, the support you receive from your teachers and coaches. A feeling that will stay with you for decades, but most importantly it is the feeling knowing that those now and after you will share these feelings. Being here at St. Andrews I have learned to embrace all these feelings, and it has changed me for the better

Comment: I feel like this place has changed me as a person, and I'm going to miss it a lot. I would like to thank all my teachers and coaches for helping me along the way. Thanks to Shrimpdog, Gurr, Juice and Carroll for keeping me out of a lot of trouble. Comment: After being at the school for 7 glorious years, I would be lying if I said they weren't the best years of my life. Trotting through the doors of Rogers Hall in my adorable mushroom haircut in '08, I was open to the brilliant tradition that the school has to offer. First I would like to thank and give some honorary mentions to some teachers that have made a positive impact on me. Shrimpdawg, you're the man, Scoular I simply thank you for everything and the countless life lessons you have taught me, Studwig you deserves the teacher of the year award, the Math den women herself Yawns for being my mother in the math classroom, nursing me the criteria from the nipple and Mrs. Groves & Mr. Swan, helping me with university. I'd like to thank the school for providing astonishing academics, athletics, and the cadet program for really nothing.
Finally I'd like to thank my beloved parents for sending me to the school, and giving me the opportunity to be part of the Andrean brotherhood. Shout out to all the guys for making the final year count with endless unmemorable weekends, making Punta one of the worst times ever and making Grad Cares a symbolic event for how much we care. I will miss every one of you, and wish all the best for the future. Cheers.

Comment: This school and the amazing people in it have changed my life. I cannot imagine what sort of person I would be if I did not attend SAC. Before coming here I was a shy kid with few friends, and since my time here I have become a man with the confidence, strength, and skills needed for me to prosper in the future. I would be a completely different person without the wonderful lifelong friends I have made here, and the incredible teachers that served as role models, and taught me what it means to be a well-rounded citizen. Thank you to everyone that has helped me during my time at St. Andrew's, and my wonderful parents who made this amazing experience possible. My brothers in Flavelle have helped me become the man I am today, and have allowed me to accomplish what I had previously thought impossible. I look forward to maintaining all of the friendships I have made, and I'm excited to see a few of my fellow Andreans at Queen's next year.

Comment: St. Andrew's has been an unbelievable two years! Although my time here was short, my two years here will stick with me for the rest of my life. All the relationships I have made have been pretty special. Whether it be in the dressing rooms, or in the boarding houses the boys always had a good laugh. I am walking away with countless stories that I will forever remember. I would like to thank all the families that house me every weekend, and put up with the wild shenanigans that we are constantly up to. I would also like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to come to a place like SAC. Overall, my short SAC career was the best years of my life. Thank you to everyone that made my years so great.

I have been living on campus ever since I was a young boy, and St. Andrew's College was always the place I wanted to go to school. Over my past 7 years at SAC I have enjoyed several memorable experiences such as the battlefields trip (2013), winning the triple crown for hockey (2014), winning the NISIC and CISAA championship (2015), and enjoying so many memories with my fellow Andreans. I would like to thank my parents for their sacrifice for sending me to such an amazing school. SAC will always have a special place in my heart. I look forward on going out west next year to play hockey for the Victoria Grizzlies. Best of luck to everyone next year!

Comment: When I first arrived on the St. Andrew's College campus in grade eight, I was amazed at the beauty of the campus. I became even more impressed when I went inside and was greeted by a boy my age wearing the St. Andrew's uniform. He became our tour guide and answered all of our questions about the school. When I left the school that day, I knew that this is where I wanted to go. It's been four years since then and I have no regrets for making that decision. My St. Andrew's Career has been unbelievable; I have made friends that will last a lifetime, gone on trips that I would never have thought about going on, and participating in sports that I had never played before. St. Andrew's pushed me to become more involved in school than I'd ever been before and my experience at St. Andrew's College is something I will never forget.

I can't think of any other place I'd rather spend the last 6 years of my life. St. Andrew's College is the best thing that has ever happened to me but now its time to go. Can't thank everyone who was apart of it enough. The memories made here will truly last a life time, the Friday nights, championship weekends, Carol service and of course the MacPherson tourny. Big thanks to Mr. Foote who was my advisor for the last 3 years. Dileas Gu Brath.

Comment: What a switch. Going from St. Max to SAC was like being traded from Newmarket Redmen house league to the New York Rangers. Academics, athletics, social endevaours, and caring all sky rocketed. I was faced with many challenging academic times such as the economics exam and various other tasks. Fortunately, I made it through those tough times and will be having zero fun at UWO next year with J, Beuno, Fras n Mahfy. I would like to thank my parents, teachers, coaches, and Mr. Scoular for staying with me every step of the way during my time in this very special place. Extended shout out to the boys, for making Cabo/Punta one of the healthiest couple of weeks I've had. Overall, a huge thanks goes out to the school for helping me in every way possible.

Since starting at SAC in grade 9, I could not have asked for a better community to have spent the last 4 years with. A large part of what has made my time here so special is playing Football, Rugby and JV Puck where I have made so many fond memories. The Pipes and Drums Band has also been an experience that is second to none and one I will always remember. I'd like to thank my family, friends, teammates, coaches and teachers for all of support they have given me. A big shout out to the people in the Math Den who day after day have spent many hours helping me not fail and without them, there is not a chance I would have gotten to where I am now. As I graduate and move on, I have no doubt that St. Andrews is a place I will always find my way back to. Finally I wish the best of luck to all my fellow grads in the years to come.

When I found out my roommate was a 6'3 basketball player, I knew it was my time to shine, to prove that I was born an athlete. His name was Daniel. Every day, Dan and I would put in work in the basketball court, but my dream shattered after I lost a game to a grade 7. I was depressed and disappointed. As I was scrolling through my twitter feed, I saw one of my roommate's tweet. It said "Never give up". Motivated and inspired, I whispered under my breath with a smirk on my face, "Thanks fam". I went back to the basketball court and beat the grade 7 the next day. Morale of the story is don't give up, and you shall succeed.

Comment: I always knew I'd go to SAC ever since my big brother attended the school. The one thing he always said to me was how much he regretted not doing Cadets. This drove me to one of the highest ranks in the Cadet Corps. As Deputy Commanding Officer of the 2015 year, I believe I have reached my goal. The greatest highlights of my final year were my final Carol Service and my final Cadet Inspection as an Andrean. I'd like to thank Mr. McCue for being a great mentor for my entire career at St. Andrew's, my advisor and housemaster Mr. Shields, Ms. Nguyen for being an awesome help even beyond math, Mrs. Marshall, and last but not least Mr. Day & Mrs. Bilton for always letting me hang out in their office and talk about anything, even if it was not school related. I'd like to thank the boys for an amazing four years and I will always cherish our memories. Thank you to Justin Laird, Liam Joiner, Aidan Crusty Calverly, Matt Leroy, Saboor Mohsin, Liam Smith, and Kunal Khemani. I'd especially want to thank members of the chaw squad, BF1 & BF2, that made me the exceptional chawer I am today. You boys made my experience at St. Andrew's absolutely amazing.

omment: When I drove through the gates of St. Andrew's during the summer after grade 7 I had no intention of going to the school. I will never forget walking into my first class id immediately being greeted by everyone in the class even though I was new. I had never been in a situation where it was so easy to make friends. The most important part of y grade 8 year was making the decision to learn the bagpipes which became one of the greatest decisions I have made in my life as now in my graduating year I have :complished all of the goals I set myself in the band. Every sports game, every class, and even every drive to Tim Horton's during spare was a special part of my high school ireer and I will never forget them or my brothers who were there with me. As I look back through the years and see the many friendships turn into brotherhood I know that we will brothers forever. After everything we went through, good and bad, I truly have become the complete man, the well rounded citizen.

Comment: Armed with expansive vocabularies full of words like "beauty", "K's" and "you amped" and long hair flowing out a backward hat, the class of 2015 took SAC and the town of Aurora by storm. Taking three grad skip days, this class took "caring" (which is now somehow a verb, adjective and noun) to a whole new level. Thank you guys for making it a terrific seven years (special shout-outs to J-Laird, Smitty, Ben, Calv, Sabs, Joiner, Leroy and Nabsy (dome piece) for all the great times we had at 99). I'd be remiss if I didn't thank my parents, my advisor Mr. Josselyn, Mr. DeMello, Mr. Day, Mr. Service, Mr. Shrimpton and Mr. Swan for helping me get through these up-and-down seven years. Whether it was on the JV Soccer pitch, filling out the referee's card book or sitting in Ms. Tackaberry's calc class, I have loved every minute I have spent here. I am not a complete man, nor am I a well-rounded citizen, but thanks to SAC, I am well on my way. It has been a distinct pleasure. Crusty Out.

Comment: Coming to SAC was sheer serendipity. I interviewed from India on Skype days before the first day of school and first stepped foot on campus on New Boy Orientation Day. And boy—was I ever fortunate! I pursued passions such as music and cricket, and explored new disciplines such as squash, debating and French. I was supported by fantastic faculty members and have shared many memorable moments with an irreplaceable group of friends who have made my SAC experience truly special. I would be remiss not to thank all of my brothers and mentors. There is no way I would have made it to the other end if it weren't for my advisor Mr. Jones, music teachers Ms. Chasson and Mr. Page, Mr. Inglis for motivating me to push myself and Mr. Roffey for churning out innumerable reference letters for my applications! I can't name one single favourite moment; I will cherish all my memories from early morning roadies to St. Mildred's with a bunch of Prefects to winning the closest of cricket games, to screaming my lungs out at the MacPherson Tournament and at Carol Service, to setting up the Semi-Formal Dance with the Prefects until midnight – the list could go on and on. I will sorely miss my time at SAC but look forward to the beginning of a new chapter as an Old Boy. I seek to maintain strong ties with the school and all of the lifelong friends I have made along my journey.

Studying abroad independently at St. Andrew's College has widened my horizons and developed my self-confidence, social skills, and independence. I once was a mischievous, disobedient and rebellious teenager who completely dependent on my parents. I felt uncomfortable and hesitant to take part in any residential program during my first month school. The unique challenge of moving to a new country, studying at this extra-ordinary school gave me the opportunity to develop into a well-rounded man. My biggest highlight of this year was the gathering of the final Carol Service and getting the chance to sing along with my fellow Andreans. I also have great satisfaction from living in this amazing community which provides me a chance to experience genuine multiculturalism by interacting with people from a wide variety of cultural backgrounds. I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend St. Andrew's College and to thank the graduates for making my years at SAC such a fantastic experience. I would like to thank my teachers for extra-help, advice, and even chatting about anything.

I would like to thank my parents for allowing me to attend this school as well as all of the people that stayed after school to help me with tests, homework and exams. There will be many difficult situations that I will have to deal with going into university, so I decided to live off of a very important quote. This quote is by a very beautiful, mature, tongue licking, women named Miley Cyrus and I feel that she portrays a very important message when she says, "Ain't about how fast I get there Ain't about what's waitin on the other side, it's the climb." This shows the importance of keeping your head up, as well as keeping it down; then again you want to keep it up at the same time. Actually you should just keep your head straight forward, whatever, I'm done now..Crusty out!

Comment: Flashback to my first year at St. Andrew's College in Grade 7. I was nervous and didn't know what to expect. Now I'm graduating and couldn't be more grateful to be a part of such an amazing school. Whether it was in the classroom, on the soccer pitch or playing the drums, this school taught me how to be the complete man, the well rounded citizen. Comment: Though living away from home was difficult at first, SAC quickly became my home away from home. I am sad that I will be leaving SAC and many of my closest friends. However, I am happy that SAC will always be a part of my life, including the friends I have made, the education I have received and most importantly the memories that I will cherish forever. Comment: When I started at SAC back in grade seven, I was quite nervous as the idea of making new friends and taking the next step in my life was nerve racking. However, over the past six years, as I look back at the many memorable moments I've had here whether it be on the soccer field or even in the drum line, I realize how fortunate I am to have attended such an amazing school. The friendships made, life lessons learned, and endless opportunities not only enabled me to strive and become the person I want to be but are things that I will remember for the rest of my life. While being in the drum line was among one of the most memorable moments I had here, being on the soccer field and winning the CISAA championship in my final year in front of the St. Andrew's community was something I will never forget. As I begin to close the doors of my St. Andrew's care and embark on the next step in my life, I will definitely miss singing my heart out at the Carol Service and having the privilege of being a part of the best school in the country. I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend St. Andrew's College, without them, I would not be where I am today. I would also like to thank Mr. McCue for being a great teacher and for helping me improve my musical skills and to my advisor Mr. Rush who was there for extra-help when needed. Comment: St. Andrew's has been without a doubt the best 4 years of my life. From the after hour DBH meetings, to making fun of debit, its been a time and half. St. Andrew's h been a place where I learned and grew as a person. Having the mentality of being involved and dedicated in every aspect of the school let me achieve my goal of being the wel rounded citizen. All in all, I'm going to miss roaming the halls of this beautiful school and even more the weekends spent with the guys. Cabo will always go down as the best week of my life. Next year I'm taking my talents to Rotman Commerce at U of T and even though I'm leaving all the boys, I am confident we'll still have our stories. At the beginning it was difficult to make friends quickly as a grade 9 en I looked like a student on a double victory lap. After people finally believed my age I finally realized this place would be my second home. It's so easy to get involved in ny aspects of student life whether it is extra-curricular, arts or sports. I got heavily involved in sports ultimately resulting in being a 3-term Varsity Captain in my graduating r. I'd like to sincerely thank my coaches for making me work hard and grow as an athlete and as a man. I'd like to thank all my teachers and staff but the graduating class erves a special shout out for making this a time I will never forget and such an amazing experience. They are the real MVP's. I remember when I came here in grade 9, scared and lost in a huge place that we call St. Andrews College. The first few years were tough, but what I learned is that you should never give up, after numerous of setbacks and problems, I became a man that I am today, a man I'm proud to be. I learned new things, such as responsibility, dedication and most importantly; brotherhood. This place isn't St. Andrews College without the brotherhood. Without brotherhood there wouldn't Tims Runs while having your friends play the bagpipes in the car, without brotherhood there wouldn't be a moment where I would scream "Commisso" or "Morrissey", there wouldn't be a moment where I would stand by my brothers yelling (not singing) "come all ye' faithful" on top of my lungs while tearing up. This place has taught me everything I need, it introduced me to my brothers, it showed me weaknesses and strengths, it made me an Andrean. Dileas Gu Brath

Comment: When I first came to Saint Andrews College I was in grade six. It is safe to say that my entire adolescence, a crucial time in any boy's life, has been defined by Saint Andrew's College. SAC has sculpted me into the man I am today and I would like to thank my parents and teachers for all their support along the way. Moving forward it is my main goal to, in the words of rapper Riff Raff, "blow up, and act like I don't know nobody". Once again I would like to thank SAC for the opportunities it has given me, and the fact that I can proudly say I have leadership on my Edsby.

Joseph Shields

Comment: St. Andrew's College has truthfully been the greatest part of my life. Through sports, clubs and all the avenues of success that were set in front of me when first stepped on campus in grade 6 have warped my life into something amazing. Without the school, I would never have been introduced to the idea of bagpiping, rugby or graphic design, things I enjoy doing on a regular basis. Above all else, I cannot stress enough about the support and help I had along the way. My McGillivray, Mr. Ramon, Mr. Josselyn and above all, my parents made this experience far more enjoyable and worthwhile than it would have been without them. From teaching patience and discipline to confidence in my own performance, the list assistance I have had over the past 7 years has been endless. What I am truly thankful for has been this ability to grow and develop in an environment where I can really be myself. There of course will be people that I know should be up here on this list, but the space I would require to write all their names would exceed the page. To all these people, all I can say is thank you for your help and support, dealing with my crap and pushing me along this pathway. I can only hope to aspire to be as helpful and instrumental in the development of others, and that is what I plan to do. In the end, I cannot give enough praise to everyone at the school, and who has made my journey possible, I hope I can only one day repay you all for what you have done for me.

Comment: My 6 years at St. Andrews have definitely been the best years of my life. From being in Labs' rink to Tim's runs during break, it has been an unforgettable experience. It would not be possible without the support of our teachers and staff, for that I thank you. Most importantly thanks to the boys who have helped to make it a blast along the way. Whether it was tearing it up on tennis courts playing ball hockey or at the James, Iwai, Sopik or Labrier family residences. Thanks to everyone St. Andrews a remarkable experience.

mment: When I came to SAC in Grade 8, I was nervous and quiet and didn't expect a lot from myself. Over the past five years, I think about the experiences that I've had here; ether it would be going to Pipes and Drums practices every Thursday night from 4 till 6 p.m., Hard working nights in the Archives, or even just sports practices. According to mission statement, being a well-rounded citizen was my main goal ever since Grade 9. My biggest highlight of this year was the gathering of the final Carol Service and ting the chance to play Highland Cathedral for the entire SAC body and parents in my graduating year. I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend Andrew's College and to thank the graduates for making my years at SAC such a fantastic experience. Particularly I would like to thank my closest friends Ben Kastelyanets, tin Laird, Matthew Leroy, Liam Joiner, Aidan Calverley, Saboor Mohsin, Kunal Khemani and Austin Hassani.

Comment: Coming to see St. Andrew's College in the fall of 2012, I knew this is where I wanted to go, no other school could compare. Where else would I take pride in wearing kilt and stand up to those that call it a skirt? Nowhere else would I belt out carols at the top of my voice with my arms around my brothers, almost to the point of tears. I truly fee that this place has changed me. I am not the same boy who entered these gates of brass 2 years ago; I am a more complete man, an Andrean. I wouldn't give up the last 2 yea of my life here for anything. Whether it's breezing in Flav playing bare tune or playing my heart out on the football (real football with your feet!) or cricket field, what I've done he will stay with me long after I've left here.

Comment: Before coming here, it was not my choice to attend St. Andrew's and because of that I wasn't initially too thrilled about going here but boy was I sure wrong My four years here have been a blast. I've made some friendships that will last a life time (hopefully) and met all new and interesting kinds of people here. I will defini remember all my years here at S.A.C. and I am thankful for all the people that have supported me. Shout out to my parents, Gregory Lloyd Reid, James MacPherson and all my grade twelve teachers (LaForge, Commisso, Kimmerer, Trevisan and Scoular) ment: English was never my highest average: What I have done includes; making close friends right off the bat in grade 9, Engaging in Music in the school and participating bands events such as music fest and the London trip, Engaging in social activities and learning to work together with my peers, Making the best of all the classes I took and ing them daily, gaining the Confidence to express myself for who I am and who I want to be, All the Tim's Runs you could possibly ask for, Spending my spare time during ol with my friends, bonding. The grade comment is supposed to be our life and achievements at school. We are probably expected to write our academics and stuff but that t what I'll look back on and see as my achievements. Honestly my achievements include all the things that I have done that have made me Happy and the things that I'll back and remember for the rest of my life. School is school and I loved it due to the fact that I managed to have good friends by myside to help me get through it, whether e academically, mentally, or entertainment-wise, they were there for me and I feel like the bonds that I have made as a student to my close peers was and is the biggest mplishment of my high school career… "I speak my mind, I don't mind what I speak" – Anonymous nment: The SAC experience had changed and widened my perspectives. The tiring but accomplishing SASSAW trip to Chile and the excitement from winning SAA Champ is still fresh in my mind. However the biggest highlight of my 4 years was being able to meet friends whom I can call my brothers; whom I sang beside ng carol service, whom I survived with through stressful academic times and whom I battled beside in the water. I will remember all the times we spent hanging out in res, in the pool and in the gym. Thanks a lot SAC for making this four years such a memorable journey.

Comment: I have lived through a range of different experiences and situations throughout my time at SAC. There were some tough times where I considered going home, and some where I felt like this was in fact my true home. While St. Andrew's is a school, living here I have come to realise that it differs from the boring image a school usually carrie The teachers are truly dedicated to their students and I felt an immeasurable amount of support from all areas of faculty; for this I am endlessly grateful. Going to St. Andrew's College I have learnt far more about myself than I believe I would have otherwise. The group of friends I have made here are some of the greatest people I will ever know. I wou like to thank all of my teachers for their ceaseless enthusiasm, showing personal interest and for helping me excel in academics despite the many other callings SAC has. I wou like to thank Mr. Stewart for his contagious humour. I would like to thank Mr. MacPherson for managing and being part of the house that is now so dear to me. I would like to thank Mr. Scoular for showing me that nothing is set in stone and introducing me to the epic world of theatre. Finally, I would like to thank my parents for being there every step the way and allowing me the opportunity to come here. Going into the wider world I am sad to be leaving it all behind, but I am positive that my life at SAC will make my future a the more wonderful.

Comments: S.A.C. is where I grew up to be someone that I was not expecting at all. The people I met were completely different from who I was familiar with, in both good and bad way. I started off my year as an enthusiastic and confident young man in grade ten, climbing up from the bottom of the trough, fell down and kept going. In my grade eleven year the enthusiasm grew. I became quiet and introverted, but doing everything I can to be a prefect, which I failed to be. Grade twelve year is relatively simple as an end. There are people helped me and therefore become memorable: Ms. Fransen, Mrs. Pries, Mr. Jumaquio, Mr. Jones, Mr. Totera, Dr. Hayter and Hans Weng. Big big thanks to them, and hope they will have happy peaceful lives in the future.

BY VICTOR HERNANDEZ

I HAVE CREATED A SERIES OF PICTURES/ILLUSTRATIONS BASED ON A SHORT STORY BY RAY BRADBURY CALLE "THE VELDT". THE STORY IS SET IN DISTANT FUTURE. THROUGHOUT THE STORY WE FOLLOW 2 PROTAGONISTS, PETER AND WENDY. WHO WERE GIFTED "VIRTUAL REALITY ROOM" BY THEIR PARENTS. IT'S PRETTY MUCH A TELEPORTATION DEVICE THAT CAN SEND OF ANYONE TO AN AMAZING ADVENTURE. THE KIDS SPEND THE MAJORITY OF THEIR TIME IN THAT ROOM (WHERE SPE CIFICALLY IN AFRICA). AND THEIR PARENTS ARE SONCERNED THAT THEY SPOILED THEM. SO THEY ATTEMPT TO CUT OFF THE ACCESS TO THAT ROOM FROM THEIR KIDS. IN THE END. WE FIND OUT THAT THE KIDS HAVE KILLI THEIR PARENTS USING THAT ROOM (TH PARENTS TRAVELED TO AFRICA. AND WERE EATEN BY A LION). THE REASON WHY I CHOSE THIS STORY IS BECAUSE I THINK IT ILLUSTRATES THE DANGER OF ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY. BECAUSE SOONER OR LATER OUR TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCEMENTS WILL BE A THREAT TO HUMAN KIND.
